

GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP INSTRUCTIONS

The Fairfax Library Foundation provides Graduate Scholarships of up to $5000 to an individual for an academic program or college-level course/courses that are part of an academic program. Internet /online courses and programs qualify.

ELIGIBILITY

- All individuals who live, work, volunteer or attend school within Fairfax County or the City of Fairfax. However, the award sponsored by the George Mason Friends, Inc., may only be granted to an employee of the Fairfax County Public Library system or a volunteer of the Fairfax County Public Library system, the Fairfax Library Foundation or a Friends of the Library group.
- Applicant must be enrolled or accepted for enrollment in a graduate program.
- An eligible individual may apply for a scholarship each year.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS ARE ACCEPTED FOR THE FOLLOWING:

- Library Science at an American Library Association (ALA) accredited school -- such as Master of Library Science (MLS), Master of Arts, Master of Librarianship, Master of Library and Information Studies (MLIS)
- Information Systems and Technology
- Business or Public Administration, Management
- School Counseling
- Education, Adult Learning, Early Childhood Studies, Master of Arts in Teaching

DEADLINE

The application deadline is April 15. The application must be complete and received or post-marked by the deadline date (or the next day if the 15th is a Sunday or holiday).

INCOMPLETE, PARTIAL, OR LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED

Scholarships are awarded on a merit basis without regard to race, gender, religion, age, physical disability, or sexual orientation. Factors evaluated include the following:

- Demonstrated academic achievements
- Library-related work and/or volunteer experience
- Commitment to a library career
- Library-related work and/or volunteer experience

AWARDS

Up to five awards may be granted:

- Three awards for $3,000 each in a Library Science discipline or in another of the disciplines listed above
- One award for $3,500 (the Edwin S. Clay III award) for Library Science
- One award for $5000 sponsored by the George Mason Friends, Inc. for Library Science to an employee of the Fairfax County Public Library system or a registered volunteer of the system

The Foundation will determine the number of scholarships awarded each year dependent on the availability of well-qualified candidates and funds. The Foundation is not required to select a recipient if none of the submissions merits the award in a given year.

NOTIFICATION

All applicants will be notified of the Foundation's decision within six to eight weeks of the application deadline date.

ALL FOUNDATION DECISIONS ARE FINAL AND NOT SUBJECT TO APPEAL

PAYMENT POLICY

Payment will be made directly to the school for crediting to your account. Awardees will receive instructions with their letter of notification.

While these scholarships seek persons with potential for future work or volunteer service in a library environment, Fairfax County Public Library cannot guarantee a future opportunity for paid employment or volunteer service.

Follow the instructions on the application. Please type, print or write your application clearly and attach any documentation required. If an item needs additional clarification and the space is not adequate on the application form, attach a sheet with the additional information.

Your statement describing the specific competencies or characteristics you believe you have to offer a library system will be critical to the selection process. Describe those activities which indicate your potential for achievement in your profession and include any plans for professional work after completion of your proposed plan of study.
